

Research topics

Topic 1: Shape acquisition, identification and processing

Topic 2: Numerical models for the specification and control of geometric variations of products

Topic 3: Modelling and optimisation to control additive and subtractive manufacturing processes

The research carried out in this line concerns the control and optimisation of additive and subtractive manufacturing processes for metal parts, and their digital chains.

Topic 4: Dependability of production systems

